

FAITH IN TOA PAYOH

Understanding Hinduism and Taoism

cultural learning journey

A programme for IRCC members and community leaders to understand the culture, customs and religious practices among the major ethnic communities in Singapore through site visits and experiential learning.

OBJECTIVES

Promote greater understanding of culture; customs and religious practices of various communities in order to raise awareness, gain understanding and acceptance, show respect and build trust.

PROGRAMME

Participants will visit two places of worship in Toa Payoh – Sri Vairavimada Kalamman Temple and Toa Payoh Seu Teck Sean Tong Temple. Participants will be given a guided tour of the two places of worship and learn not only about the tenets of the faith and cultural practices, but also their rich heritage in relation to the development of Toa Payoh as Singapore's first HDB estate and their involvement with the local community. The day will end with a catered lunch* for participants buffet style at the garden of Toa Payoh Seu Teck Sean Tong Temple.

Lunch will be halal with vegetarian options.*

Dishes do not contain beef.
